UCL IOE MPhil/ PhD Regulations 2014-15 (Continuing Students)

Contact: Lizzie Vinton, Assessment Regulations and Governance Manager, Academic Services, Student and Registry Services

These regulations apply to IOE MPhil/ PhD students enrolling before September 2015.

Continuing IOE MPhil/ PhD students are also subject to the IOE Code of Practice for Research Degrees

2. Definitions

2.1 In these regulations, terms have the meanings assigned to them in the IOE General Academic Regulations 2014-15 unless otherwise stated in the text.

2.2 Any reference in these regulations to any named officer of UCL shall be deemed to include a reference to any person designated by that officer for the purpose.

3. Admission

3.1 Candidates for admission must satisfy the requirements laid down in the

5.4 A student accepted under regulation 4.3 may be exempted by IOE from part of a course of study for the MPhil or PhD degree provided that the course of study followed at IOE is not less than one calendar year of full-time registration or two calendar years of part-time registration.

5.5 A course must be pursued continuously except by special permission of the Faculty Tutor.

5.6 The progress of each student shall be formally reviewed on an annual basis in accordance with the IOE Code of Practice for Research Degrees.

5.7 Full time MPhil or PhD students are expected to submit their thesis for examination within four calendar years of the date of the initial registration for the degree and part-time MPhil or PhD students are expected to submit their thesis for examination within seven calendar years of the initial degree registration. Students who have not completed within this period can transfer to UCL's regulations if they wish to continue studying beyond this period. For a student accepted under regulation 4.3, the period of registration spent at the other institution shall be used to

6.2 Candidates for entry to the examination of the MPhil or PhD must satisfy the requirements include material which examiners are not required to read in order to examine the thesis, but to which they may refer if they wish.

contribute if invited to do so by the examiners with the agreement of the candidate. Otherwise the oral examination will be held in private.

11.12 An independent chair shall be appointed for all oral examinations. The chair shall play no role in the academic content of the examination of the thesis or the candidate. The role of the independent chair is to be present at the oral examination as a neutral observer and a guarantor of fair play, and generally to ensure that the examination is conducted appropriately. Where appropriate, the chair shall offer advice to the examiners on the regulations.

11.13 The chair shall be appointed in accordance with the IOE Guidelines for the Conduct of Oral Examinations.

11.14 The examiners shall prepare independent preliminary written reports on the thesis to assist in conducting the oral examination (or the preparation of the joint report in those cases where no oral examination is held). These preliminary reports shall be submitted to the IOE before the oral examination so that they me e me e mep

Pass subject to corrections within one month

a) The candidate will be informed that he or she has been unsuccessful in the examinations

Pass subject to minor amendments within six months

13.2.3 If the thesis otherwise fulfils the criteria but requires minor amendments (i.e. stated minor deficiencies, requiring some textual revision) and if the candidate satisfies the examiners in the oral examination, the examiners may require the candidate to make such amendments specified by the examiners, normally within 6 months of having received them. The examiners shall be required to advise the student of the minor amendments in writing following the oral examination. The amended thesis shall be submitted to the examiners or one of their number nominated by them for confirmation that the amendments are satisfactory.

Referral – represent within 12 months

13.2.4 If the thesis fulfils the criteria but the candidate fails to satisfy the examiners at the oral examination, the examiners may determine that the candidate be permitted to re-present the same thesis, and submit to a further oral examination within a period specified by them and not exceeding 12 months. Following the oral examination the examiners shall be required to advise the student in writing of the additional work required before the thesis is re-presented. The examiners may at their discretion exempt from a further oral examination, on re- presentation of his/her thesis, a candidate who under this regulation has been permitted to re-present it in a revised form.

Fail – may not re-present

13.3 The examiners may determine that the candidate has not satisfied them in the examination. The examiners shall not, however, save in very exceptional circumstances, make such a decision without submitting the candidate to an oral examination.

13.4 If the examiners are unable to reach agreement, their reports shall be referred to the Research Degrees Examination Board, which shall determine the action to be taken.

13.5 A candidate who fails to satisfy the examiners will not be permitted to re-enter for the examination. However, exceptionally, a candidate may apply to IOE to register for another course of study leading to the submission of a thesis on a different topic.

14. Notification of Results of MPhil and PhD Examinations

14.1 After the report of the examiners has been considered by the Research Degrees Examination Board, the candidate shall be notified by Student and Registry Services of the result of his/her examination. The degree shall not be awarded until copies of the thesis have been lodged with IOE in accordance with regulation 9.8.

14.2 A diploma under the seal of UCL shall be subsequently delivered to each candidate who has been awarded a degree.

14.3 The diploma for the degree will bear the names of the candidate in the form in which they appear in the records of UCL at the date of issue.

14.4 No person will be awarded any qualification who has not settled any tuition account outstanding with UCL or made acceptable arrangements to settle any such account, and neither will any information on such a person's examination performance be communicated to that person or to any third party except as required by law.

14.5 The Student and Registry Services may withhold the result of any examination for a student who is under investigation under the disciplinary procedures of UCL, unless required to disclose information by law.

14.6 The procedures governing student complaints, including appeals against the decision of a Board of Examiners, are defined in the UCL Academic Manual, Chapter 1, Section 12: Student Complaints Procedures.
