

UOL Pillars of Employability

extensive research on employer requirements across a range of sectors.

Recruitment and articulation your employability and being able to articulate your skills and experience.

Skills

Consider what skills you have developed already and where the gaps are. Our Skills Hub give information about the skills

Interpersonal skills

Decision making

Team work

Analytical & critical thinking

Leadership

Communication

Creative

Self-awareness

Experience & Networks

yourself is to gain experience and meet new people. What are you taking up next? This could include:

Group

Global Citizenship

A 'global citizen' is someone who is

Knowledge

You'll develop subject knowledge and expertise through your interested in your knowledge of the industry/sector you are studying sustainable

Develop this through:

Reading news articles

Exploring

Talking to professionals

Career Planning

Get to know yourself and what sort helpful to have an idea of your career you could

Values/Personal Qualities

overcom

about

Doing or values. For example of the balance over competition or work

Undertaking a global internship