

SECTION 34: DEVELOPMENTAL REVIEWS: FORMAT AND CONTENT

Background

Every trainee at UCL has a Developmental Review with their Course Tutor early in the second and third years.

The review should be seen as the culmination of other tutor meetings throughout the year. It is an opportunity for trainee and tutor to overview progress in academic, clinical, research and professional domains over the previous 12 months, identifying what has gone well and

