

Intensive Summer Course Translation Technology

Course Timetable & Structure

Course Timetable

Course Structure

Each class will mainly consist of an Introduction and Revision of the previous class, reference to main concepts required for the understanding of the content to follow, exemplification of new technologies, demonstration, parallel practice and alone practice with guidance. Each class will finish with instructions on further practice and homework. The course will cover the following topics:

Week 1:

-