

Make the most of your skills at UCL!

Powered by MotionMail

WELCOME TO A NEW YEAR AT UCL - We're committed to making sure you can receive a world-class education and student experience in September, and that you can do so safely and with the flexibility you need. Check the UCL Students website regularly for all the latest on how we're doing this.

Dear ${Contacts.First Name},

There is so much more to university life than just your academic studies. Of course your studies are important, but there are also many other ways to enrich yourself whilst at UCL. This is why for Countdown email number 12, we shine a light on Skills and Opportunities.

Skills and Opportunities

As a new student at UCL, there are all kinds of extra-curricular opportunities to take advantage of. Read these articles to find out how you can make the most of your time outside the classroom and get involved.

Volunteering as PhD student

There are plenty of rewarding and powerful volunteering opportunities open to PhD students at UCL. Rebecca is a PhD researcher in Physics and Astronomy, but took on a project completely different to her research, working towards a more sustainable future. Find out more.

Top three things you need to know about UCL careers

UCL Careers is the university's dedicated careers service. Even as a new student, you can access resources, opportunities and guidance now, to kick start life after your studies. Find out more.

The Bartlett Facilities and Opportunities

The Bartlett offers an exceptional range of study and research resources, technical facilities, and opportunities for collaboration. We hold an extensive range of events throughout the year, including lecture and seminar series, workshops, panel discussions, book launches, crits, displays of work and debates in subjects across the whole faculty.
